OLD BUSINESS

1. Committee Updates:

- a. Elderly Connections: Teens Teach Tech was successful; for future events, it might be best to do one-on-one workshops, instead of using a PowerPoint; still in the process of reaching out to Merrill Gardens
- b. Mental Health: Commission raised over $600 in Valentine Grams; proceeds will go to NAMI; NAMI will be presenting at Branham during English classes; in the process of hosting Yoga on the Greens event- more details to come
- c. Careers/Life/School: Interview Workshop did not bring a huge crowd, so Commission talked about ways to promote better, or host a different type of event that is more appealing to students; Job Fair was extremely successful with over 150 students in attendance
- d. Kids: Leprechaun Trap Making event will take place on March 11; Committee requested that Commissioners bring extra shoe boxes
- e. Human Relations: Committee has been requested to contact local organizations that specialize in Foster Care- update coming next meeting
- f. Library/Recreation: Laser Tag at the Campbell Library will be held on March 2nd from 6:30-9:30pm; Committee will provide schedule of events to next meeting; Movie night is taking place on April 20th - Harry Potter movie
