OLD BUSINESS

1. Pizza and Politics Event Review: Overall commissioners enjoyed the event. Thought that the video team and production was very professional. Some liked that there were more politicians this year. Some missed the teen debate section from previous years.
2. Youth Commission work plan and subcommittee development
 - a. College and Beyond: Moving the college essay writing event to the 28th instead of the 21st. Template for reaching out to teachers has been created, hope to hear from them next week.
 - b. Academics: Moving forward with weekly tutoring sessions over zoom. Hope to start first week of November. Will survey tutors and those who want to be tutored and make a signup sheet.
 - c. Civic Engagement: Having a voter registration table for last minute registration on October 17th from 3-5 outside the Campbell Library. Made flyer and included the 16-17 year olds that can pre-register to vote.

- d. Environment: Hosting a virtual environmental challenge on November 8th over Instagram. Use a # to qualify for volunteer hours. Planning to have a recycling virtual event at the end of the month.
 - e. Wellness: Mental health seminar is being planned for December 6th over zoom. Lisa Miller will be talking about mental health to teens.
 - f. Recreation: Hoping to plan a Thanksgiving-themed craft night. Trivia night being planned for the future as well.
 - g. Social Justice: Movie night is cancelled due to licensing issues. Possible to do a drive in movie in the future. Working on speaker series for immigrant justice or racism topic.
