OLD BUSINESS

1. Documenting COVID project with the Campbell Museum: Anna Rosenbluth spoke to the commission about the importance of documenting COVID history for the museum. She explained that pictures, videos, and art are all good documentation and would like to have something from the Youth Commission. Commissioner Kanumury D. explained the idea of creating a video of all the Commission's activities from the term.
2. Youth Commission work plan and subcommittee development
 - a. College and Beyond: College essay writing event on Nov 11th from 5-7pm. Will be sending out emails to advertise.
 - b. Academics: Will start tutoring sessions by next week. Making the flyer still but have an application form ready to send out to peers.
 - c. Civic Engagement: Registration event on the 17th went well. Not many people registered but cheered on voters. Planning coffee and politics event for next semester.

- d. Environment: First event is coming up on the 8th. Will be a virtual environment challenge where people can earn volunteer service hours. Flyer will be out for everyone to share.
- e. Wellness: Mental health seminar is being planned for December 6th over zoom. Secured another speaker for the event.
- f. Recreation: Thanksgiving craft event being planned for Nov 21st. Might coordinate other craft events with environment and wellness subcommittees in the future.
- g. Social Justice: Immigration speaker series event coming up on Nov 13th at 4:30 over zoom. Poster is being made to share for the event. Planning a letter writing campaign for the future.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Commission Collaborative: Pieracci explained the Mayor's desire for a Collaborative between the Campbell Commissions and the need for a representative. Kanumury D. was nominated and voted to be the Youth Commission's liaison for the Collaborative.
2. YAC Social: Pieracci explained the YAC social event coming up on Nov 20th. Kanumury D. gave insight into what the event was about and why it was valuable to attend.
3. November Game Night: Commissioners voted that Nov 16th will be the next team bonding game night.
