

Community Development Department - Economic Development Division

360 Payments Solutions Recognized for Success & Contributions

On May 9, the City of Campbell recognized Campbell-based e-commerce company 360 Payment Solutions, Inc. for outstanding revenue growth and commendable business practices. Vice Mayor Susan M. Landry presented a proclamation on behalf of the City and Mayor Waterman to 360 Payment Solutions' co-CEO's Steve Ciabattoni and Lisa Coyle as part of a business recognition ceremony at company headquarters at 90 Railway Ave. 360 Payments' staff and City staff members Al Bito, Paul Kermoyan, Michael Thomas and Theo Dubus participated in the recognition event.

The company describes itself as "loving, scrappy, and honest to a fault", and is committed to delivering a positive customer experience with a human face. Specifically, progressive attitudes, customer relationships and personal connections combined with innovation, service delivery and customer support have resulted in 360 Payments' success. 360 Payments has ranked among the best places to work in Silicon Valley among small businesses.

Vice Mayor Susan Landry and City Staff with 360 Payments Staff