12/6 – “ALL FOR LOVE” – With her last romance novel a critical and commercial flop, Jo Parker needs her new book – featuring a heroic Navy SEAL – to be a winner. To ensure success, her publisher arranges for a real-life SEAL to immerse Jo in the world of her protagonist.

TV-G-, 1:25 mins

12/20 – “HOW ABOUT YOU” – When the manager of a retirement home in the Irish countryside asks her younger sister, Ellie, to run the facility during the holidays, four mischievous residents take advantage of the power vacuum and turn the place upside down. As Ellie learns to take charge, the residents also come to terms with their own troubles. NR, 1:31 mins

1/3 – “RED JOAN” – Loosely inspired by a true story, this dramatized biopic shifts between two eras as it recounts the tale of Joan Stanley, a longtime British spy for the KGB who sees her peaceful suburban retirement abruptly shattered when she’s arrest for treason. R- Contains Adult Material, 1:50 mins

1/17 – “YESTERDAY” – While he’s still looking for his big break, musician Jack Malik gets hit by a bus during a global blackout. But when he wakes up to find he’s the lone person on Earth who knows of the Beatles and their songbook, Jack has a huge chance at stardom.

PG-13, 1:56 mins

1/31 – “UNSTOPPABLE” – It’s a nail-biting race against time as an unmanned train carrying a load of lethal chemicals speeds out of control, and a conductor and engineer do everything in their power to keep it from derailing and killing tens of thousands of people..

PG-13, 1:38 mins
